About the Competition

Mates4Mates is an Australian charity dedicated to helping injured veterans and their families. This July, Mates4Mates is searching the country to find “Australia’s Greatest Mate”. The inaugural competition will run from 2-30 July 2018, calling on all Australians to nominate their greatest mate and celebrate the power of mateship.

There are four categories for the competition:

Anyone can nominate their mate for Australia’s Greatest Mate. It only takes one nomination to enter, with some great prizes up for grabs.

Eligibility

Anyone 18 years or older who lives in Australia and can accept their nomination via phone or email is eligible to win Australia’s Greatest Mate.

Nominations

It only takes a couple of minutes to nominate and say thanks to a mate who’s made a difference. Nominations can be made online at mates4mates.org.

Judges

On the 31 July, judging will commence and all nominations will be independently reviewed and a winner for each category will be selected.

Winners

The four winners will share in a prize pool and “money can’t buy” experiences worth an estimated $7,000. Winners will be notified by phone or email by 12pm, Friday 6 August 2018.

About Mates4Mates

At Mates4Mates, the power of mateship can’t be underestimated. We’re here when times get tough and aim to provide a safe place for injured veterans and their families to help them rebuild and recover.
